

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE BOUYON BOSS COMES WITH THE KEYS TO WCMF 2019

Roseau, Dominica: October 3, 2019..... Bouyon Boss, Asa Bantan, is coming to the stage of the 2^{1st} Edition of the Dominica World Creole Music Festival holding the keys to the WCMF with his usual energetic performance, , scheduled for October 25-27, at the Windsor Park Sports Stadium, Roseau, Dominica.

Asa Bantan

The versatile and hugely popular Bouyon artiste who is creating waves with his many hit songs and patriotic fervor, brings to this year's festival, many more powerful songs, strong lyrics and the keys to letting patrons unleash their vibe with many dance moves on the Festival grounds and in VIP stands around the Windsor Park Sports Stadium.

Asa, who will be performing on Night One of the Festival, alongside acts such as Afro-beat star Davido, WCK Band, Soca Queen Patrice Roberts, Reggae crooner, ColtonT and Kompas band, Nu Look. Asa will combine his international appeal with his local popularity to send patrons moving and grooving to his onstage presence.

Asa Bantan's performances are always greatly anticipated by Festival patrons and should not be missed by new fans or returning Festival patrons. The Grand Bay native is one of the new voices and major exponents of the Bouyon sound, as well as an ambassador for Dominica's music and culture. He travels extensively promoting his music and performing to audiences and fans across the globe.

In what is anticipated to be one of the biggest ever WCMF, stars like Asa are expected to come with their A game and deliver performances to help maintain the status of the WCMF as one of the leading music festivals in the region. And, expect Asa, WCK, Triple Kay and Signal Band to represent Bouyon music across the Three Nights of Pulsating Rhythms.

Be sure to experience Asa and the many other stars on the Opening Night of the WCMF 2019. The hit-maker and Bouyon ambassador is back and is surely going to keep you moving all night long.
